

DELICATE WOMEN
BRADFIELD'S
FEMALE
REGULATORS
SUPER

Can You Wear

Size 1 Shoe?

..100 Pairs Finest Kid Button..

--In Hand Turned, Extension Sole

--and Machine Sewed. All I's and

--all with Heels.

..ORIGINAL PRICE $3 to $4.50..

Cut to $1-$1.50

--This is one of the many good
--things to be found in our Sale now
--going on.

J. H. Anderson
& Co.

FOR LADIES
ONLY!

ARE THESE BARGAINS IN

SHOES

Hand-sewed patent tip needle opera toe $3.50 Shoe for $2.50

Extension sole, patent tip, narrow toe
$2.50 Shoe for $2.00

Medium weight sole, pat tip, heel and spring $2.00 Shoe for $1.50

SEE THESE GOODS BEFORE YOU BUY!

PETREE & CO.

THE RELIABLE HOUSE.

Kingsville Kentuckian.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1896.

NO. 12

CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN
HAS IT.

Watertown Successively Tasted — Moody
Meeting — Fire at Uncle — Headless
Woman — New Doctors — Farmer
/Fined — Work House Berrets
— Sporting Events — Murders and Deaths — The Snow.

Nickel in the slot.

The Cloperton News says: "Commonwealth's Attorney Chell, in his charge to the Meade county grand jury, called especial attention of the jury to these 'Nickel in the slot machines,' where you drop in your nickel and draw out one, two or three cigars. He says it is a violation of law, and if there were any such machines in operation in the country, law should be passed after June 1. Mr. Death was of the same opinion and it was clearly a violation of law and subject to a fine and imprisonment."

There are a number of cigar machines in operation in this city, and if they are unlawful the owners should be made aware of it. They certainly appear harmless, and absolutely fair.

They West Fox Hunting.

The Paducah Fox Hunting Club last week invited the Hopkinsville Club to come down and join in a hunt. Lee Ellis, Henry Layne and Frank Prowse accepted the invitation, taking with them eight dogs. The chase ended in Marion county, Kentucky, after a ride of five hours a hunt was taken. The Hopkinsville club will arrange a chase before long and invite the Paducah club to take a hand.

He Carried a Revolver.

Tom Galloway, a negro boy, was arrested Saturday morning charged with being a suspicious character. When he was taken to a large revolver was found on his person. The Sheriff Hanby gave him thirty days in the work house. Another colored boy, whom Galloway claimed as his partner, was also taken into custody, but later on was given fifteen minutes to get out of the city, and be got out without ceremony.

A Farmer Fired.

Saturday morning, Sandy Johnson, of the Johnson's Mill country, was fined in the City Court on two charges, one for carrying brass knuckles, and the other for being drunk. The total amount including cost was $2.20. Johnson claims to have been relieved of a considerable sum of money while "hiking in" the city Friday night, but a search warrant failed to locate it.

New Doctor To Arrive.

Mrs. Katherine Houser, the female doctor from Lexington, appointed assistant physician, and Dr. A. F. Stanley, of Ohio county, the third and fourth physicians, will enter service to-day and enter upon their duties at the Asylum. Drs. Smith and Walton will return when they come in. Dr. B. F. Eager, first assistant, is the only one of the old force now holding on.

Murderer Surrenders.

James Hughes, the murderer of Marshal Smiley, at Providence, Ky., last Tuesday, has surrendered to a farmer near Providence and was jailed at Dixon before the Providence people knew of it or he would have been lynched. Jordan Hughes, father of the murderer, and a brother named Walker are in jail at Dixon as accessories.

No Secret Contract This Time.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Late this afternoon the Treasury officials completed the computation of bids offered for the new bond issue, from which it appears that the amount of bids above that of J. P. Morgan and his associates at $10,687,700, was $66,788,650, and that the amount to be awarded to the syndicate, therefore, will be $39,211,350 or approximately one-third of the whole issue. The number of successful bidders is 4781.

A Shoe Button in Her Nose.

The three-year-old child of Cage Kelly, colored, of Sebree, died Sunday night under somewhat peculiar circumstances. It drank a quantity of whisky which was left within its reach, and shortly afterwards was seized with convulsions, dying in a very short while.

Three inches of snow.

Saturday was a day of snow and wintry weather. It snowed nearly all day and most of the night. The ground was too wet to hold much snow but by Sunday morning about three inches of "the beautiful" was covering the earth. It passed away when the sun came out.

Fruit Fair Right.

Up to the present time fruit buds of all kinds are unburst and in fine condition. With a favorable season now on, there will be an abundant fruit crop.

The manufacture of sugar and salt is carried on by the aid of 2401 inventions.

The waterworks successfully passed the required test Friday afternoon, throwing five streams at one time to a height of 100 ft.; several attempts had been made by them before, but started again after each time they had always interfered. This time there was nothing in the way and the trial was entirely successful. The Council met yesterday afternoon to formally accept the contract with the city for 100 hydrants at $4,000 a year.

W. H. ENGLISH DEAD.

After Several Days' Severe Illness the Noted
Indianian Passes Away.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 7.—Hon. W. H. English died early this morning. Since last evening his death at any moment had been expected.

William Hayden English was born at Lexington, Ind., August 27, 1822. He studied law, and in 1843 was chosen clerk of the Indiana house of representatives. In 1847 he was made speaker of the legislature, and in 1852 was elected to congress, holding his seat until 1860, when he retired from active political life. His chief title to distinction, however, was his nomination for the vice presidency by the Democratic national convention at Cincinnati in June, 1864, which ticket headed by Gen. Hancock was defeated. Mr. English was a man of considerable means, having a large amount of real estate in Indiana, where he lived, and had also accumulated large personal property.

He had been in failing health for some time and his death today will prove no surprise to those who know his true condition.

Big Sporting Events.

This week will begin a series of big events in sporting circles. As the new law making prize fighting unlawful throughout the United States, the most effective, all of the proposed bills will take place.

Mexico, opposite El Paso, Tex., there will be five fights as follows:

Pete Maher vs. Bob Fitzsimmons, for the heavyweight championship of the world, Friday.

Walcott vs. "Bright-Eyes" Collins, both colored, for welter-weight championship of the world, Saturday.

Jack Everheart vs. Horace M. Leads, for lightweight championship, Monday.

Geo. Dixon vs. Jerry Marshall, both colored, for feather-weight championship of the world, Tuesday.

Jimmy Barry vs. Johnny Murphy, for the bantam-weight championship of the world, Wednesday.

It may be that the Mexican authorities will interfere and stope the fights, but the managers are not counting on any such trouble.

Gathered At Gracey.

GRACEY, Feb. 8.—Miss Mary Barbour, of Hopkinsville, is the guest of Mrs. Jno. A. Steele.

Mrs. Annie Gunn, of Cadiz, is visiting Mrs. H. H. Bryant this week.

Rev. I. N. Strother, the new pastor of West Union church, is expected to preach his first sermon to-morrow.

Rev. A. W. Meacham was unable to fill his appointment at Little River last week. He had been quite sick but is now able to be up.

Mrs. Amanda Lauder has returned from a lengthy visit to her sons in Texas.

Mr. Ballard Fourqurean, who recently married Miss Essie Cox, has built a new house which will be a comfortable and good to housekeeping.

Mr. John T. Hill, who has been a week with Dr. W. H. Murphy, is now about well and will shortly move into a new house just built on the Ricketts place, where the old house was burned last year.

Mr. John T. Hill, who has been a week with Dr. W. H. Murphy, is now about well and will shortly move into a new house just built on the Ricketts place, where the old house was burned last year.

No Secret Contract This Time.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Late this afternoon the Treasury officials completed the computation of bids offered for the new bond issue, from which it appears that the amount of bids above that of J. P. Morgan and his associates at $10,687,700, was $66,788,650, and that the amount to be awarded to the syndicate, therefore, will be $39,211,350 or approximately one-third of the whole issue. The number of successful bidders is 4781.

A Shoe Button in Her Nose.

The three-year-old child of Cage Kelly, colored, of Sebree, died Sunday night under somewhat peculiar circumstances. It drank a quantity of whisky which was left within its reach, and shortly afterwards was seized with convulsions, dying in a very short while.

Three inches of snow.

Saturday was a day of snow and wintry weather. It snowed nearly all day and most of the night. The ground was too wet to hold much snow but by Sunday morning about three inches of "the beautiful" was covering the earth. It passed away when the sun came out.

Fruit Fair Right.

Up to the present time fruit buds of all kinds are unburst and in fine condition. With a favorable season now on, there will be an abundant fruit crop.

The manufacture of sugar and salt is carried on by the aid of 2401 inventions.

The waterworks successfully passed the required test Friday afternoon, throwing five streams at one time to a height of 100 ft.; several attempts had been made by them before, but started again after each time they had always interfered. This time there was nothing in the way and the trial was entirely successful. The Council met yesterday afternoon to formally accept the contract with the city for 100 hydrants at $4,000 a year.

HALF OVER

AND THE LEGISLATURE HAS DONE
NOTHING.

The Postal Resolution and the Vote on It—
Talk of Confirmation—No Senator
Expected This Week.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 8.—Exactly one-half of the legislative session has passed and one lonely little bill has almost gone through all the stages necessary to make a law.

There is not going to be much legislation during this week, for it is believed that the Republicans will try to force a finish fight. Therefore over half the session will have passed without any work worth mentioning. Nothing is expected to transpire tomorrow. Many Republicans are paired until Tuesday, among them being Speaker Blanford, Mr. T. W. Howard, Mr. T. Burt Burnam and several other leaders whose presence on the floor would be very desirable, if not absolutely necessary. But after tomorrow the trouble may begin at any time. It may be Tuesday, it may be Wednesday or it may be the last of the week, but the Democrats will be surprised if something does not happen before the next six days pass.

Several Democratic legislators are sick. There has been some uneasiness lest they should be unable to attend the sessions every day. Senator Haywood is sick to-day, and a physician was attending him. Senator Ogallala was feeling better but on account of the snow the Democrats will try to secure a pair for him to-morrow in spite of the protest of several Republicans who want to win the senatorial race by any sort of method.

Geo. Dixon has a good constitution, and will bring in any sort of weather in order to cast his vote, if no one will pair with him.

There is a disposition on the part of several Democrats to allow the Republican Senator the opportunity to confirm the nomination of J. W. Postle as the colored saloon-keeper of Hopkinsville to be steward of the Western Indiana Asylum. This opportunity could be presented by four Democrats voting in order to make a quorum, and allowing the sixteen Republicans to take the responsibility of confirming or refusing the nomination.

The asylum resolution sent to the Governor last week was as follows:

"At a regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, which was held at the asylum Tuesday, February 4, the following resolution was adopted by the Board:

"Resolved, That the colored saloon-keeper of Hopkinsville be confirmed as steward of the Western Indiana Asylum."

The resolution was adopted by the Board of Commissioners of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, earnestly requested his Excellency, Gov. Bradley, to withdraw the appointment of John W. Postle recently sent to the Board to be steward of this asylum for the reason that he is not a fit person for the office."

The resolution was signed by Alfred Wood, Secretary pro tem.

All the Democratic Commissioners voted for it. In the vote the remonstrance, Dower, Republican, voted against it. Wiley, Republican, favored it.

M. D. Meacham, also Republican, refused to vote, and the other Republican member, Geo. C. Long, was absent.

The Old Madrid.

A good company is an exceptional thing. The management promises that in the production of "In Old Madrid" on to-morrow evening, the theatre goers will witness one of the best comedies that any age or literature has produced. It is modern, bright, sparkling and witty. Its plot is one of the most original and original that has ever been thought out. Its fun bubbles up spontaneously out of the situations. These are never strained but grow naturally out of the story and are always vivid and life-like. In tone it is absolutely clear and forcible, and its production demonstrates that literary merit does not prevent a play from being exquisitely funny.

DEATHS.

EXCUS.—A little child of Mr. Jones L. Dyeus, of the Fairview neighborhood, died very suddenly, Feb. 8. The child, all his appearances, was in perfect health a few minutes before it became a corpse.

McGEE.—Mr. Sam B. McGee, of Bennettstown, died on the 1st, of drowsy affection, aged 35 years. He was a son of Col. G. W. McGee and was a young man of good popularity, and that neighborhood is in deep grief. He was a good boy, in his dearest, lost one of its best citizens. Dolorous leaves a wife and three small children.

Successfully Tested.

The waterworks successfully passed the required test Friday afternoon, throwing five streams at one time to a height of 100 ft.; several attempts had been made by them before, but started again after each time they had always interfered. This time there was nothing in the way and the trial was entirely successful. The Council met yesterday afternoon to formally accept the contract with the city for 100 hydrants at $4,000 a year.

HESAW HIS SHADOW.

A True Story That Backs up the Groundhog Tradition.

We have heard a great deal about the tradition of the groundhog as a weather prophet. The story goes that the little animal who hibernates during the cold months comes out of his hole Feb. 2 and if he does not see his shadow stays out, as spring is close at hand. If he sees his shadow he goes back to his winter quarters for some forty days, before again venturing forth. This tradition has been regarded as without foundation on fact, but we are prepared to show by an actual occurrence that it is true. On the 1st of February, when the facts were set out in every detail. The information comes to the KENTUCKIAN from such reliable sources that we are willing to stake our own reputation for reliability upon the truth of the statements made.

Laurens, Ky.—Mr. Eugene Morrison, Jr., a young man of the Longview neighborhood, a son of the well known Peurbrook man of the same name, captured a young groundhog, or groundhog if we may use such a word. The little animal grew quite gentle and affectionate in its disposition, and when it was taken out of its cage it was a full grown and fine specimen of the ARCTOMYS MONAX. It made friends with the dogs as well as the members of the family. Would eat bread out of Mrs. Morrison's hand and it showed no inclination whatever to bite. It grew to a little over 1000 lbs. in weight. On the morning of last October the groundhog suddenly disappeared. After a fruitless search for several days, he was given up for lost and as the months passed by was almost forgotten by the family. Now comes the interesting part of the story. On the morning of the 1st of February the Morrison boy was suddenly surprised to see the missing groundhog rush into the room, one of the doors being open, and making himself at home. He ran from one member of the family to another, and finally to his mother. She seemed ill and failed to recognize him. He was taken to the dining room and given a meal and a comfortable place about the room until noon when the sun suddenly shone out through a rift in the clouds. The animal at once became restless and fearing that he would go away again Mr. Morrison put him in a bird cage to confine him. It soon became quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He had proven stronger than a wife or a son. He had been quiet and lay down in his cage. He was put out of sight and nothing more was thought of the incident until several hours later. It will be remembered that the sun came out bright and clear and remained shining for an hour or more in the afternoon Feb. 2. Towards night when the groundhog was next thought of, it was found that he had broken open the cage and had again disappeared. He had seen his shadow more than a week ago. He Feel Badly To-day?

We ask this repeatedly, because serious diseases often follow trifling colds. If you are weak and generally exhausted, you have no appetite and can't sleep well. You are taking the restorative and strengthening medicine, Brown's Iron Bitters, and you feel better from the very first dose.

THE WAGEN.
We played a cardless, little game, and hastened to get through. "I know a way to get some fun out of the play, if you'll consent to do it."

"Agreed," said she, "I am willing quite. And even a bit I'll call all right."

"Suppose," said I, "we play like this: I'll bet you 'gainst a single kiss, that I'll win the wager square."

"I'll bet it's luck is on my side—"

"I'll win the wager square."

"I can't, and then she took the pack, and dealt each nine cards fairly."

"We'll bid for trumps, then drop three."

"Hee's a wolf," cried I. "Give three!" cried she.

"And hearts is what I make it."

"The three cards I laid aside."

"In the last lap I saw it."

Then chose a card and played it.

And now our interest was intense,

For the game was the game on suspense.

My queen was high, my four-spot low.

She had got angry—did I know

How the cards had got to her?

Dear girl, she didn't want to beat,

For these she had discarded.

—W. H. Constock, in Chicago Tribune.

TOM MARVIN'S WAY.

SAY, Tom," said one of a group of young men, who had been consoling him with much chaffing, as they stood around a stove in the basement of a large wholesale house; "you have heard the news?"

The question was addressed to Tom Marvin, who sauntered up to the group, and was an inquiry put with special intent — in fact, a plot, that Tom's friends, and his associates, for the moment (Tom made a wide circle of his associates and friends) had devised to confuse him. Tom's most peculiar trait was a singular frankness and unadorned truthfulness about himself. He was sorry to say that Tom was known privately among his associates as "Fool," though no one dared address him to his face with the sobriquet. This name, as I have said, was gained by Tom's unusual and singular transparency about himself. He seemed to have no reserve. A question would exude from his lips, and he would provide it concerned only himself. He was very far from that brutal kindness which some persons call truthfulness or sincerity, and pride themselves much theron, and which consists of saying disagreeable things, and of being a bore, and of which the facts would mortify. On the contrary, Tom was very kind and helpful in that matter, and would cover as much as he could any facts or state of mind in others or others which would hurt him. He was a friend to all, and a good man. But in all that concerned himself a fact was a fact, and that was the end of it, and the world might have it and welcome. Why should he be ashamed of a fact not shameful? This was what he said on the subject, when he was asked to say what he thought of the girl.

"Well," said Tom, "I have heard no news. What is it?"

"Yes," said Tom again.

"Well," said the girl, at last, some-

Tom had declined an invitation and had agreed to join in the discussions and speculations and such like games, but other guests of the hotel, and one evening Miss Elme asked him why he so secluded himself.

"Because I have no money," said Tom, blushing.

The young girl flushed painfully.

"Oh, don't be troubled," said Tom, kindly; "you have done no harm with your question. It does look a little odd that I keep away from everybody. But you see, I have just enough money to pay my vacation of two weeks here and get back to the city, with a margin of precisely a quarter of a dollar. So I can have no extras."

"I think, Mr. Marvin, that is, perhaps, the reason, Miss Elme, also."

"Tom interrupted, "You can give me anything, or loan me anything, or make a deadhead of me. But I would like to spend that quarter of a dollar for a boat ride on the lake this minute, Miss Elme. If you will go with me."

Uncertain whether she were amused or more touched, the girl accepted the invitation, and had occasion to remember that little excursion happily, for Tom could talk well, and she had a great imagination, and the landscape strolled by the water had a charm for both thoughts and fancies. And Tom, who had often looked at her with respectful interest, began to love her from that hour. Her hands, her exceedingly truthful and gentle gray eyes and a laugh which, though not perfect, was very attractive, made one think of Emerson's saying: "There is no beautifier of complexion or form, or habit, or manner, like the wish to scatter joy and not pain among us."

Tom beamed himself straightforward from the disconcerted jokers to Miss Elme's abode, and no sooner was he seated in the girl's presence than he began, without preface:

"Tom, I have been told that you are engaged to be married, and have come to ask you whether it be true?"

The girl's start and flush disturbed Tom not at all. He was simply intent on the fact in exactly the same natural way that the atmosphere is accepted when flowing in an open window.

After a long pause, to which Tom proffered no help, Miss Elme said: "You are asking a strange question and very abruptly, Mr. Marvin."

"Yes," said Tom.

"I am to be a matter of my own private life."

"Yes," said Tom again.

"Well," said the girl, at last, some-

I HAVE HEARD NO NEWS. WHAT IS IT?

what I heard. "I don't know why I should tell you, but I will, if you like, in thinking that I ought to know you are alive in thinking before I trust you with the information."

Tom paled a little at the word "information," but said again, simply: "Yes."

"What?" the girl said, wonderingly, after another long pause, "what is your motive? What has happened? Why do you wish to know?"

"Because I really want you," said Tom.

Fearfully blunt, very impudent. But Tom, you know, was no diplomat, and at this moment every feeling and pulse in him went its natural way and took the shortest course without reflection or sense of proportion.

After a little the surprised and moved girl said softly, but with not quite a smile: "Tom, I am very fond of you."

"The reason why you have not told me before?"

"Because I am poor."

"That is not a good reason."

"You are right, Tom. The two facts to get this made good together."

"I am not rich, I have a small subsistence—a bare independence," said Tom.

The girl replied to this remark by an inquisitive look of admiration. Then there was a silence, in which Tom was as obstinate as before, but he was pale and his expression wholly unassuming. Then the girl, who had an originality and directness of her own, not unwholesome, said to Tom, and said, quietly: "Well, Tom, with all your poverty, I am not engaged, but I think I shall be. And Tom, a shade plainer than before, withdrew without a word.

After he had gone the girl cried a little. Then she closed her eyes, and sat down in her window, looking through the city, commanded a view of one large tree that had become very companionable to her. Then she began to examine herself, which process she continued for a while, with interest of delirious intensity, and then, finally, said to other matters, for she knew that the eye must not stare too long at any object which it would see plainly. Then she wrote to Tom as follows: "My friend, I told you I was not rich, which was true. But even so, I have made some progress, but can go no further without your aid."

Tom's humility was not sure of the meaning of this dear epistle, but he lost no time in going to inquire—and he was made very happy.—Chicago News.

A Little Girl's Escape.

A PALE, THIN GIRL BECOMES ROSY AND FLUMP.

By VITUS DANCE CHECKED—A Loving Daughter Saved.

From the Kansas City, Mo., Journal. The following is of great interest to the journal and its readers, because the case is of great value from a medical point of view, and it is the first case in which its truth absolutely proven. The case described is that of the daughter of L. L. Sworn, a widow, who had been living on cash deposits and savings.

During the spring of the current year, 1893, my daughter, L. L. Sworn, aged 13 years, became afflicted with a nervous disease which grew upon her to such an extent that it seriously interfered with her health. For a time she was a wonderful one, but the disease effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale skin, and she got along well enough.

Uncertain whether she were amused or more touched, the girl accepted the invitation, and had occasion to remember that little excursion happily, for Tom could talk well, and she had a great imagination, and the landscape strolled by the water had a charm for both thoughts and fancies. And Tom, who had often looked at her with respectful interest, began to love her from that hour. Her hands, her exceedingly truthful and gentle gray eyes and a laugh which, though not perfect, was very attractive, made one think of Emerson's saying: "There is no beautifier of complexion or form, or habit, or manner, like the wish to scatter joy and not pain among us."

Tom beamed himself straightforward from the disconcerted jokers to Miss Elme's abode, and no sooner was he seated in the girl's presence than he began, without preface:

"Tom, I have been told that you are engaged to be married, and have come to ask you whether it be true?"

The girl's start and flush disturbed Tom not at all. He was simply intent on the fact in exactly the same natural way that the atmosphere is accepted when flowing in an open window.

After a long pause, to which Tom proffered no help, Miss Elme said: "You are asking a strange question and very abruptly, Mr. Marvin."

"Yes," said Tom.

"I am to be a matter of my own private life."

"Yes," said Tom again.

"Well," said the girl, at last, some-

I HAVE MOVED MY STOCK OF

Do you know?

I have two experienced city trimmers, Miss Essington and Miss Crow!

My aim is to please you and save money! Give me a call.

The Palace.

—Mrs. Ada Layne.

Removal!

Fine Millinery

to the store formerly occupied by Graves & Condy.

Call and see me in my new quarters.

The Leader.

Mme. Fleurette Levy, Mgr.

PRACTICAL

M. D. SULLIVAN,

Nashville, Tenn.,

PLUMBING, GAS & STEAM FITTING.

Estimates Solicited and Telephone 1566.

Orders Promptly Attended To.

No. 183 North College Street.

J. C. KENDRICK

C. D. RUNYON

Kendrick & Runyon,

Carksburg, Tenn.,

Proprietors of

CENTRAL TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

Solicit the patronage of all who have tobacco to sell. Cash advances made on consignments.

J. C. KENDRICK, Salesman.

At Cost.

Sugar 5¢ Bacon 5¢ Corn 1 lb. 35¢

Peas 15¢ Corned 6¢ Corn 5¢

Macaroni 7¢ Corn 5¢

Frogs 6¢ Corn 5¢

Garter Webbing 5¢ Corn 5¢

Side Comb, all styles 15¢ Corn 5¢

Bargains, real bargains in Trimmed Goods.

T. J. SARZEDAS

RAGSDALE, COOPER & CO. BLOCK.

(Formerly Hotel Latham.)

Bridge St., Nolen & Pool's old stand.

Jas. I. Belote,

Plain and Ornamental Plaster.

—Hornbeamville, Ky.

(Formerly for Fores & Bros.)

Will make estimates on all kinds of plastering and cement work.

All work guaranteed, and prices reasonable.

Repair work a specialty,

and will receive prompt attention.

Address Box 423.

There are patents for scrubbing brushes and brooms to the number of 3,184.

There are 5,883 models of different kinds of steam boilers in our patent office.

There are 636 patented fuel or methods of preparing wood, coal and coke for use.

Trunks, valises and baggage contrivances generally are protected by

1,883 patents.

Woman's Beauty No Secret

It all lies in the care she takes, expelling from her system the terrible chronic diseases peculiar to women. Theaches, pains, fits, nervousness, complexion, etc., which accompany all female life, are the result of the debilitate organs of womanhood to perform their natural function.

It is a natural law that the body and all its organs, parts, tendons and nerves, should be in perfect order to insure success.

If you would avoid many of the troubles of women use

Wintersmith's Buchu.

Your druggist sells it.

Arthur Peter & Co., Louisville, Ky.

Gen. Agents.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

</div

JEPKINSVILLE, Kentucky.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY MORNINGS

BY

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

SUBSCRIPTION $2 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Local, reading notices, 25 cents per line. Special Local & Extra, per line, each insertion. Rates for standing advertisements furnished on application.

OFFICE 212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

A Different Ox is Gored.

The Courier Journal in reply to a paragraph clipped from this paper, says:

"But when the expression of the State convention is overridden by the expression of a subsequent legislative caucus, where is the authority for holding that the caucus is superior to the convention? Party organization is, indeed, absolutely necessary, but there can be no party organization without a recognition of the fact that the convention is supreme, and that its laws can not be amended or repealed except by a succeeding convention of equal or higher authority. No caucus, be it composed of men endorsing the convention's action, or of men disapproving it, as are many of Blackburn's supporters, has the least power to commit the party to any course not in harmony with the action of the convention."

The caucus is held under the authority of the same State Central Committee that calls the State convention and the action of one is as binding as that of the other upon members of the party. To deny the authority of the caucus to nominate any man who submits his claims to it as a member of the party, is to rebel against the most vital principle of party government. And yet this is the remarkable position the Courier Journal has taken in the face of facts and precedents that condone both its lack of loyalty and its want of consistency. The caucus last month was called to nominate candidates for Senator and Librarian. It was not required to meet or platform. It was not directed to ascertain the views of Senatorial candidates on any question upon which Democrats differ, any more than it was required to force the candidates for Librarian to take a stand upon the question of wearing bloomers. The caucus made its nominations and one of the nominees has been elected. The other can be if given the united support of the party and the organ whose editor allows the bolters to vote for him in the attempt to defeat the nominee. But the Courier Journal is inconstant as well as rebellious and unfair. Every Democratic platform adopted in our State conventions for many years prior to 1891 declared for the free coinage of both gold and silver. The last two were especially out-spoken for silver.

In 1891 the platform—which was editorially approved and supported by the Courier Journal—was framed by the present Senatorial nominee and was as strong for bi-metallism as words could express an idea. Under that platform written by Senator Blackburn, a caucus was held by a Democratic Legislature and Wm. Lindsay was nominated and elected Senator. The Courier Journal called upon no Democrats to bolt his nomination. Judge Lindsay was either against silver at that time, or his views have been changed since his election. If he was a single standard candidate then, elected on a double standard platform, we have a caucus precedent for "a course not in harmony" that the Courier Journal cannot dispute. If on the other hand Judge Lindsay was then in harmony with the Blackburn platform upon which he was elected, why did not the Courier Journal urge the Democrats—some of them the same members—to defeat him for the same reason that it now wants Blackburn himself defeated.

But Lindsay was elected under Blackburn's platform and it was satisfactory to the Courier Journal. Now we have Blackburn nominated under a platform reported by Senator Lindsay and the Courier Journal reversed its own ruling and declares the caucus "has no power to commit the party to any course not in harmony with the action of the convention."

What is said for the gander is not said for the gander. Out of its own mouth it is convicted.

No new developments are expected at Frankfort this week. Five bolting Democrats still hold Blackburn's election in their hands. Wessinger, the Louisville fanatic, is the only senator now holding out. He still says he will resign before he will vote for the nominee. Ogilvie is quite feeble and the Republicans refuse to pair with him and are hoping may die or become disabled. Many pairs were announced and the last ballot was without interest. Carlisle and McCreary may have ordered the bolters to quit voting for them, as all of them cast their ballots for Dick Tyler Saturday. Secretary Gaines sent out the 1895 minutes of the K. P. A. last week. The book is gotten up in a very handsome and attractive style. It contains most of the speeches made, including some of the "unspoken" ones.

Miss Guy was elected Librarian by a vote of 70 to 5. The Republicans nearly all refused to vote, after finding that the Democratic nominee would be elected. Miss Guy received the votes of both pro-lifers and one Republican, Judge H. G. Petree. By electing her the Democrats have shown what they can do when they are united and determined. Now let them do as well for their nominees for the Senate, and the past will be forgotten.

The question has been raised in the First District that Chairman Wheeler had no authority to call the district committee together. There is no sense or truth in such a claim. The rule upon which Wheeler's enemies rely, applies to small judicial and senatorial districts. The chairman of the congressional district is chosen by the delegates themselves and he is a committee man for the entire state as well as chairman of his own district committee, but with no vote except in case of a tie.

Clarence Sterrett has purchased the undivided interest of his late partner, J. W. Maston, in the Haweilles Clarendon. The death of Mr. Maston was a loss to the press of the state that will cause pain and sorrow among all of the boys who knew and loved him for his many good qualities. Mr. Maston attended the press meeting here last fall and no young man present gave promise of a longer life of usefulness.

Editor W. P. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, has completed his 21st year as an editor and announces that he will shortly enlarge and improve his already excellent paper. The Interior Journal is well-established and prosperous semi-weekly, a class of papers not numerous in Kentucky but very select.

The Richardson libel bill has been reported unfavorably. If newspapers irrespective of party, would refuse to support any candidate for the legislature who will not treat them fairly after they are elected, they would stand a better chance to secure some much needed legislation.

Congressman Evans and McCreary spoke Saturday in opposition to the silver substitute for the Bond Bill. Their views were so nearly in accord that Mr. Evans, who secured the floor for an hour, gave half of his time to Mr. McCreary.

Gov. Bradley really thinks that he is a candidate for President. The Lexington Leader, heretofore for McKinley, was declared for Bradley and will play McKinley for second choice.

Only $44,278,912 of the gold reserve remained Saturday. Many millions have been drawn out recently to buy the new issue of bonds intended to "relieve" the treasury.

Erysipelas

Has been my affliction from childhood. It was caused by impure blood and every spring I was sure to have it. I could not tell what my general health would give way. Doctors did me but little good and I became despondent. A certain sarsaparilla satisfied in my eyes and I became totally blind for several weeks. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me after taking one bottle my sight gradually returned, my blood became purified and I was restored to good health. With Hood's Sarsaparilla I am now well. "Remember, Miss LULU LEE, 144 Market St., Memphis, Tenn. Remember

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye. $1.60 for 35.

Hood's Pills cure all Irritability, biliousness, rheumatism, etc.

Senator Frye, of Maine, has been elected President of the Senate, which place was held by Senator Harris while the Senate was Democratic.

Miss Guy was elected Librarian by a vote of 70 to 5. The Republicans nearly all refused to vote, after finding that the Democratic nominee would be elected. Miss Guy received the votes of both pro-lifers and one Republican, Judge H. G. Petree.

By electing her the Democrats have shown what they can do when they are united and determined. Now let them do as well for their nominees for the Senate, and the past will be forgotten.

The biggest turtle in captivity is on the Isle of Mauritius and weighs 500 pounds.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss.

LUCAS COUNTY.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State of Ohio, and will and do hereby well pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARACT that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARACT CURE.

FRANK R. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 8th day of December, A. D. 1897.

A. W. GLEASON,

{SEAL}

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Hall's Cataract Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Said for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

FITTED FOR CHINESE USES.

History of the Late War as Told by the Mandarins to the People.

It is specially written for the Chinese people by the Chinese authorities. The following, which is the latest gem, relates to the affairs consequent upon the cession of Formosa to Japan. It comes on the authority of the Pechengfu (Shansi) correspondent of the North China Daily News, who says that the document is being industriously circulated in the cities of the province, at 10 cents per set, illustrated:

"The armies of China and Japan fought until the third month (of the present year). After peace had been declared, China handed Formosa over to Japan. Unexpectedly, the Formosans did not want to be handed over. The Japanese went there, and their soldiers attacked them from the fourth month till the last of the first month. Formosa's commander in chief, Liu, fought more than 30 battles. In a word, the Japanese won. He was in a single battle, but, first and last, by strategy. Gen. Liu killed 30,000 Japanese soldiers and destroyed some 30 odd iron battle-ships and captured some 20 odd. Afterward Japan sought help from western nations—English, French, American and Russian. Each country responded favorably the day of the second fifth month. Each country and Japan had 30 iron battle-ships and 30 or 40 wooden ones. They were all filled with bravos—80,000 or 90,000 men and more. They went to Traipehfu and Anpingkou and fought a battle. Gen. Liu, by the use of strategy, began to contend 60 or 70 odd of Anpingkou, in the sea, on the 6th of the month, in the evening. Suddenly fire started up on the surface of the water. The foreigners made up their minds that they wanted to sail and depart. But Gen. Liu's machine under the ground burst fast all the iron battle-ships, so that they could not move. On the 7th of the month the fire ceased, for the foreign ships and soldiers were all burned up. This battle was like the ancient 'wall of fire' battle. Utterly every foreign nation feared Gen. Liu as one does a tiger. On the 8th and 9th of the month Gen. Liu's bravos took ten iron battle-ships, 30,000 or 40,000 aborigines, 10,000 odd Black Flags, and attacked Japan. They immediately captured Changchikou, Taipehfu, Mukaukan and many other places. They also captured Japanese arms without number. The Japanese people of all kinds were killed and buried in lime-number. From such a chancery Japan cannot be at peace in a day. Sent from Tien-Tsin, Kuan-Hau, twenty-first year, second fifth month, twenty-eighth day."—London Times.

29 Day Clearance

Great Bargains in Every Department

The Saving of Money for Everybody!

Come to see us and

We Will Protect and Take Care of You.Mammoth Clothing & Shoe Co.*SPECIAL LOCALS*Jack Stock For Sale.

Also two registered young saddle stallions. Send for catalogue. S. H. & C. MYERS, Kelly, Ky.

"Old Lee" anthracite coal, Woodstock and Monarch coals Lump, Nut, Mine Run and Steam Coal.

E. L. FOULKS, 14th St and L. & N. R. R.

It is easy to humbug a man once. When he has been persuaded into buying cheap, inferior whisky he never does it again if he can help it. Inferior whisky is disgusting, poisonous and unsatisfactory in every way. Besides it is dangerous to health and comfort. Don't buy whisky at random. The risk is too great. Get a high grade liquor that has been tested and proved. The I. W. HARPER, Nelson County, Ky, whisky has made a reputation by its excellence. It is invariably good and can always be depended upon.

SOLD BY
W. R. LONG,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

Grover and Starlight.GROVER

Is a chestnut sorrel, 16 hands high, a combined saddle and harness stallion, is stylish and a good actor. He has been entered in four fairs, in the saddle and harness rings.

He will make the present season at my stable on the farm known as the Waterside farm, Green place or J. C. Thurmond's farm, $12 to insure. Care taken to prevent accidents, but no liability should any occur. Pasturage furnished mares at usual rates. Money for season due on usual conditions.

Pedigree: Sired by Manager Gold Dust, 220; he by Forrest Gold Dust, 225. First dam Molie, Witcher, sired by Elliston's Rattler, out of a Dan Rice mare.

STARLIGHT.

Having a Starlight Jack, I will stand the mare on my farm, six miles west of Hopkinsville, on the following terms: $10 to insure mare with foal, money due when mare is proven in foal or is transferred. Starlight is black, with white points. The Starlights are too well known to need any further description.

LESLIE A. SUMMERS.

Bracken & Bro's

New Exchange—Dan Taylor's old stand is fitted up in first class style. A choice selection of fine liquors, cigars, tobacco, etc. Call and see us. BRACKEN & BRO'S.

Sell Your Saw Mill.

Light saw mill rig wanted. Address C. H. HAWKINS, Cadiz, Ky.

[Mention this paper.]

GRAVES & CONDY,
~~Jewelers~~

Special Attention Given to Repairing. Old Gold and Silver Taken in Exchange for Goods...

Diamonds, Watches, Spectacles, Silverware. Howe Building, Yates' old stand.

Richards & Co'sNEW SHOE STORE!*Our Shoe Department

Will be found in our new room, and we beg to say to our friends in all candor, that we believe that we can offer them as good shoes as can be found in the State. We handle all the new lasts, widths, styles and at all prices; we ask your inspection. Our celebrated 20th Century Ladies' Shoes have been the admiration of all who have seen them, and our line of Gent's Shoes, and Children's Shoes cannot be excelled. Our steadily increasing trade in Shoes necessitated the removal of these into another room.

We are also Headquarters for Dry Goods, Notions, Carpets and Millinery.

Richards & Co.

City Grocery

When you want First-Class Groceries at Rock Bottom Prices and Country Produce of all kinds, don't forget to give Twymen & Baker a call at 208 Main St. One price to all and Free Delivery. Don't forget the place.

TWYMAN & BAKER.

KITCHEN'S OLD STAND.

Now is the time to BUY YOUR

WINTER SUITS!

A. Clark, [Successor to Jno. T. Wiley]

Has the best assortment and finest quality of goods ever brought to this city

Perfect Fit Guaranteed at Reasonable Prices!

Geo. A. Clark, The Artistic Cutter, is manager, and invites all of his old customers to call and examine the stock before placing orders.

NO. 4, MAIN STREET, UP STAIRS.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Govt Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Light saw mill rig wanted. Address C. H. HAWKINS, Cadiz, Ky.

THEY ARE A Good Thing!
Push Them Along!

—We Have Them!

Victor, Stearns, Bicycles.

We handled six high grade wheels last year in order to determine which were the best. We have discarded all but the Victor and the Stearns, as we found these

The Best

Come and look at our Display of Wheels!

Forbes & Bro.

THE HOWE JEWELRY CO.

THE MOST ELEGANT LINE OF

Watches, Jewelry, DIAMONDS!
Silverware, Clocks, Broo-a-brac,
Cut-glass, Art Goods, Spectacles, ever seen outside of a large city. ALL AT LIVING PRICES.

Personal attention given to—Watch, Clock, and Jewelry Repairing.

Remember the place—209 South Main Street.
(Two Dooms North of J. H. Anderson & Co.)

Call on us for Reliable Goods and Repairing.

HOWE
JEWELRY
COMPANY,

JAS. M. HOWE, MGR.

Just A Word . . .

... Don't forget that the cold weather will hurt your horse.

Buy a Blanket for him.

35 different patterns in Lap Robes for you to select from.

F. A. YOST & CO.

FINE JOB WORK ON SHORT NOTICE!

Elegant Line of WEDDING STATIONERY!

Note Heads, Bill Heads, Letter Heads,
Statements, Envelopes, Business Cards,

APPLY AT THIS OFFICE

THE QUICKEST
LINE

BETWEEN

LOUISVILLE & MEMPHIS

Direct Connections for
CINCINNATI AND THE EAST.

Direct Connections for all Points in

Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas,
Texas, Oklahoma, Mexico, and California.

FAST TIME

LIMITED TRAINS.

PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS.

Write for information to the nearest agent of the Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern R. R.

JOHN ECHOLS, S. G. HATCH,
Gen'l Manager.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Carriage Hardware and Trimmings.

Fine Vehicles
of All Kinds.

Cor. 8th & Virginia Sts.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

HAVE YOUR PHOTOGRAPHS MADE AT

WYBRANT'S

NEW STUDIO,

No. 580 Fourth Avenue,

Louisville, Ky.

There are 3,337 patents for machinery or processes employed in paper making.

The necessity of preparing a brace for the consumer has developed 2,274
patents.

DUCKS CAUGHT IN DRIFT NETS.

A Method Which Is Bound to Benefit in a Large Measure.

Large numbers of ducks, unmarked by shot or bullet, are sold in the market every day by fishermen. The impression has always prevailed that the birds were trapped, and so they are, says the San Francisco Chronicle, but not in the same that one might imagine. They are taken by means of drift nets set out in the market drift net front. Small fish, in plunging about in the small mesh net, tumble through the larger meshes of the big net, and become securely entangled in the pockets thus formed. Ducks are sold in the markets every day. The eggs placed to them in the market are the same. The eggs of the duck are shallow. Since the opening of the game season many fishermen have done a profitable business in ducks taken in this way.

SETTLED THE BILL.

A Hotel Guest Was Found to Pay an Intended Suicide's Fare.

Suicides are never wanted by hotel proprietors. Each one costs a hotel a considerable amount of money, and for months the property which it occupies is discredited. A guest of one of the best hotels of this city lately, says the Washington Star, a guest acted strangely, and the proprietor made up his mind that the man was going to do something desperate. So one night he went to the guest's room. There was no answer to his knock, and when the door was broken in he looked through the transom to his guest writing a letter, a pistol at one side and a bottle of poison at the other.

"Let me in or I'll break open the door," he called to the landlord.

The door was opened after a little hurriedly, and the guest was admitted.

"I don't want any suidhild here," said the landlord, entering. "What's the matter with you, anyway?"

"Out of money, out of work and can't get out of town," sullenly said the guest.

"Well, how much cash will you take and agree to get out of town?" asked the hotel man.

"I could get home for $20," was the reply.

"Here's the money; now pack your trunk and take the first train."

The man went. It was a good business transaction for the landlord.

PARENT'S EXPERIENCE.

The Bishop of Maryland Tells a Good

Story to His Own Experience.

Bishop Paret tells a good story, and at his own expense, says the Baltimore American. As it happened, he was on a Washington trip recently, and was staying in the immediate vicinity of a couple of men who were rather "under the weather," as the saying is. Presently one of the men, with a forcible expletive, remarked to the other that no one had robbed him of a $50 bill. "I did," said the other. "Oh, I guess not; you must have it about you somewhere." But the other insisted that he hadn't, and that he had the bill when he came aboard the train. Some one had robbed him, and he proposed to find it if he could. So he got up to the front of the train and said to the conductor, "Sir, it has been a minute now I've been looking for a $50 bill, and that was lost with 'you, neighbor!' But I made no answer. Then the man grabbed my arm and shook me, but to no use, as I didn't wake up. He kept on shaking, however, and always a little more forcibly, until at last his right ear pierced me. "I say, Bill, let him alone, will you; he's drunker than you!"

It Might Come Handily.

Nantucket is famous for auctions.

They are held in the public square.

Meat auctions, furniture auctions.

There are few things one cannot buy at auction if one bides his time.

Whenever an old home is broken up,

wanted effects are closed out at auction for whatever they will bring. At the last one a refrigerator was put up.

"Too late, the season's over," shouted some one in the crowd. "But there'll be another one, and maybe a hot one,"

said the auctioneer. "Well, never die before that," said the other. "Well," replied the auctioneer, "if you die you'll be sorry that you hadn't bought a refrigerator and taken it along with you!"

French Blue Laws.

One of the most curious applications of a Sunday law is reported from a French town. A wheelman was arrested for repairing the tire of his wheel on the road on Sunday and condemned to pay a fine of 25 francs ($5).

The defense of the wheelman claimed the absolute and immediate necessity of repairing a punctured tire being a matter of life and death.

There are many men who die of this difficulty, and the wheelman was not the first to die of it. The doctor will give a healthy restoration of the genitourinary organs.

Night Emissions.

Night Melancholy, Distress, Loss of Energy and Strictures, Venereal, Hydrocephalus, Tenderness, and other diseases of the genitourinary

organs.

It is a common disease.

Saturday

Feb. 15

We Begin a

7 Days Havoc Sale.

The Last Great Sale

of the Season and It'll Be a "Stunner!"

See Handbills for Particulars.

Settle It
WRECKERS OF PUG PRICE'S

Price Reed, colored, Methodist deacon, while ejecting John Breckinridge from his church in Letcher county for misbehavior, was probably fatally shot.

A couple at Middletown, Ky., while out driving lost their way and turned into a flooded meadow, when they succumbed to cold and were drowned.

Congressman Tom Settle, of North Carolina, has appointed a negro his private secretary, the only case of this kind in congress.

Joseph R. Dunlap, proprietor of the Chicago Dispatch, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 years and fined $2,000 for sending indecent matter through the mails.

George Curry, a prominent farmer of the Tompkinsville neighborhood, committed suicide by jumping into the Cumberland river.

The Truettberg lynching case at Russellville is expected to be given to the jury to-morrow.

Mrs. James Carroll was killed by the cars at Willard, a small station in Carter county.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the many physical ills which vanish before proper effort, gentleness, pleasure, health and happiness are to be had.

The knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a condition of the system, the removal of which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly remedies. That is why it is the only remedy we can find for all the ills everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is one of the most powerful purifiers and cleansers, without debilitating the organs on which it acts.

It is therefore important, to get the effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Company, and sold by all reliable druggists.

In the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, that laxative should remain a necessity. If afflicted with any acute disease, one may be commented to the most skillful physician, but in case of a laxative, that should be the best, with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

HERE AND THERE.

Buckner & Owsley for Insurance. C. H. Huffman and Fannie Simms, colored, were licensed to wed Saturday.

Dr. E. N. Fruitt, Dentist, office over City Bank, Hopkinsville, Ky.

There has not been a marriage license issued to a white couple this month.

L. P. Miller, druggist at Pembroke, Ky., offers a "bargain list" of medicines. See ad in special local column.

Mr. W. F. Wood, of Sinking Fork, who was partially paralyzed some time ago, is able to be out again.

Dye work and cleaning during February and March done at nearly half price at the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry.

A masquerade ball will be given in Bowling's Hall, in Crofton, next Friday night and a crowd of young people will attend.

Mr. W. C. Dawson, formerly of Hopkinsville, has opened a general merchandise store at Durham, on the C. & P. road.

Mr. Walter E. Warfield, of Casy, has been granted a certificate of good character by the County Court and will make application for license to practice law here.

The people of the Golds' voting precinct in Webster county will vote on the prohibition question on the 21st of March. The district is now dry.

John Barnett, whose term as town marshal of Ewington expired some weeks ago, was re-appointed by the Council, at a meeting held last week. Mr. Barnett is an excellent officer and that town could find no better man for the place.

Mr. A. W. Pyle of Pyle & Renshaw, offers his services to the public as a professional embalmer. He has had long experience in embalming and every branch of the business. Read his ad, in another column.

Several of our warehouses sent representatives to Cadiz, yesterday to interview Trigg county farmers concerning the disposition of their present crop of tobacco, it being county court day.

Mr. O. E. Layne has sold his stock of dry goods at Fairview for $14,000; passenger, $122,950; miscellaneous, $84,810—making a total of $563,205, which is an increase of $22,484 over 1895, and an increase of $26,186 over 1894, but a decrease of $10,000 in 1893.

Mr. George E. Phippen, who had some time, has built a new hotel at that place, known as the "Phippen House," and is now ready for business.

Good sample rooms have been added and the commercial trade is especially with every prospect of success.

The L. N. statement for the fourth week in January—Freight, $106,415; passenger, $122,950; miscellaneous, $84,810—making a total of $563,205, which is an increase of $22,484 over 1895, and an increase of $26,186 over 1894, but a decrease of $10,000 in 1893.

Mr. W. T. Blakemore and family will leave this week for New Orleans.

Mr. W. L. Rogers, of Charlottesville, Va., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jas. R. Wood.

Mrs. J. W. Yancey has returned from a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Utterback, in Paducah.

Mrs. Marcia Carney has gone to Florida to spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Willie Rust is visiting the family of her brother, Rev. John O. Rust, in Nashville.

Miss W. A. Watson, who has been a charming guest of Miss Nettie Edmonson, for several days, leaves to day for her home in Edinburg.

Messrs. W. S. Chestnut and J. W. Armstrong have returned from Owensboro, where they went as jurors in the federal court.

Mr. Frank L. McRae, of Owensboro, has opened an insurance office in the Riddle Coop building and will this week move with his wife to this city and take rooms at his wife's office, 100 Main street, and for the Equitable Life Company. His office is on the ground floor and one of the handsomest in the city.

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE MARKET.

and the Kentucky by Glover

Major House sold 96 hds.; 8 hds. Clark leaf at $14.25, 18.75. 13. 11. 25 to 9.90; 5 Charke leaf at $7.10, 6.50 to 5.20; 12 Anderson leaf at $17.50, 17.50, 9.90 to 8.25; 18 Anderson leaf at $7.10, 6.90 to 5.10; 18 Anderson leaf and 18 new leaf at $10.75, 9.60 to 8.40; 10 to 5.30; 6 Charke leaf and 11.75, 9.90, 8.20, 6.10 to 5.90; 5 Breckinridge leaf at $2 to 9.00; 5 Washington leaf at $9.00, 8.90, 8.70 to 7.80; 6 Washington leaf and 18 Anderson leaf at $5.50, 4.90, 4.60; 5 Clark leaf at $6.00 to 4.30; 2 Todd new dark leaf, at $6.60 and 6.20; 1 Henry (Tenn.) new dark leaf at $6.60; 1 Logan new dark leaf at $7.30; 1 Hopkins new dark leaf at $7.10.

Vitale, double strength, for sale by druggists.*

Shredded Wheat.

N. Y. Buckwheat Flour.

Wrigley Chewing Gum.

Hominy and Hominy Flakes.

Grits.

Oatmeal.

Apple Butter.

Sauer Kraut.

Evaporated Apples.

Evaporated Peaches.

Mince Meat.

Peas.

Canned Corn and Tomatoes.

White Heath Peaches.

N. Y. Full Cream Cheese.

Macaroni.

At WALLIN.

A female drummer is doing some of the Central Kentucky towns.

E. M. SHERWOOD, Agt.

In the suit of W. L. Ziegler against the city of Henderson for $5000 damages for maintaining a pesthouse, a verdict of $700 was awarded jointly against ex-mayor John C. Atwood and ten councilmen, seven of whom are not now members of the city council.

In the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, that laxative should remain a necessity. If afflicted with any acute disease, one may be commented to the most skillful physician, but in case of a laxative, that should be the best, with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

A female drummer is doing some of the Central Kentucky towns.

At WALLIN.

E. M. SHERWOOD, Agt.

At WALLIN